VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION & EMPLOYMENT

Vocational Rehabilitation (Chapter 31):

The Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment (VR&E) Program is authorized by Congress under Title 38, Code of Federal Regulations, Chapter 31. The mission of VR&E is to help veterans with service-connected disabilities to prepare for, find, and keep suitable jobs. Also, Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Service provides vocational-educational counseling to veterans and certain dependents. VR&E can provide a wide range of vocational and educational counseling services to service members still on active duty, as well as veterans and dependents who are eligible for one of VA's educational benefit programs.

TIPS ON STARTING A STUDENT VETERAN ORGANIZATION

Step One:

Contact the VA Certifying Officials at your university, this person can tell you how many people are receiving veterans' benefits at your respective institution. This person can also mass email all those people receiving benefits to help you find members.

VA Certifying Officials

Find your college or university VA certifying official listed in the link below.

<http://inquiry.vba.va.gov/weamspub/buildSearchInstitutionCriteria.do>

Step Two:

Contact your student senate or student activities office to get the paperwork started to be recognized as an official club on campus. Find an academic advisor, someone you trust and knows the college or university system. Normally you need between 5-10 members to start an organization on campus.

Step Three:

Draft your club or organization's constitution and bylaws. Included are samples of other colleges student veterans' clubs constitutions.

Sample Constitutions:

San Diego State Constitution:
